The volume Ritratto di donne accompanies the exhibition with the same title and it consists of two parts, separated but connected by a fabric band which highlights a virtual dialogue between Alessandra Ariatti's (Legami) and Chantal Joffe's (Moll) projects.

This double book contains images of the paintings presented in the show and a compilation of images of previous artworks of both artists, together with a critical text by Mario Diacono about Ariatti's work and one by Daniel F. Herrmann about Joffe's research.
