Nine artists, nine painters who can be thought to represent abstraction or, equally, to abstract representation.

Realized on the occasion of the exhibition Figurative Geometry at Collezione Maramotti, the volume includes an ample illustration of the show and of the single works by Sadie Benning, Alex Brown, Mamie Holst, Chip Hughes, Xylor Jane, Robert Janitz, Ulrike Müller, Nicolas Roggy and Richard Tinkler.

American art critic Bob Nickas – who organized the exhibition – delves into the research conducted by these artists, while simultaneously offering some broader reflections on the meaning of the painting practice in contemporary times.
